

Dennis Willmont Scholarship Application

Dennis Leroy Willmont spent his life as an author, acupuncturist and healer. He practiced energetic healing including sacred geometry, crystal healing, shiatsu and acupuncture. Dennis mediated daily in the Daoist tradition of Chi Gong and Tai Chi.

Dennis was a scholar, integrating psychology with Chinese medicine for optimal healing. In attempt to share his vast knowledge with colleagues and students, Dennis wrote and published 13 books on Ancient Chinese Tradition and its relationship to acupuncture and natural healing.

To honor Dennis, the Willmont family would like to offer scholarships for students in need who are interested in Martial and the Healing Arts.

Application:

In a few words describe the subject you are interested in studying and the institution you plan on attending?

Discuss the substance of the course or study and why this is important to you?

What are your plans for the future?

Identify a sponsor. A sponsor is someone who supports your professional goals and knows your intentions. Most often the person teaching the class or a supportive, influential person in your life could be considered a sponsor. Please include their name and contact information.
